

Tri-State Therapeutic Riding Center CORPORATE DONATION

With A Little Help We Can Do Big Things

Tri-State Therapeutic Riding Center is a non-profit organization that serves hundreds of individuals with special needs and their families each year, many of whom rely exclusively on our unique program for assistance due to the high costs of comparable therapy services.

TSTRC is continuously engaged in fundraising to ensure that program participation is accessible to families already struggling to cover medical expenses.

No participant is ever turned away due to inability to pay.

However, increased community awareness has resulted in a marked increase in demand for our services and the program now has a waiting list for participation. Your donation will help us serve more individuals, maintain our facility, care for our special equine therapy partners, and keep program tuition costs affordable for all participants.

YES, we want to provide support for Tri-State Therapeutic Riding Center programs!
